Dr May Su

BSc(Med) MBBS MMH (GP) FRACGP

My Story...

May is a General Practitioner (GP); GP Supervisor and the Academic Lead (GP) at HETI, Higher Education, Master of Psychiatric Program.

In addition to the breadth of General Practice, May has specific interests in complex care, mental health, womens' health, sexual health and children, including psychotherapeutic supports and care for these groups. She is accredited for IUD and Implanon insertion.

Being interested in preventative health, May is passionate about improved community education and awareness. She has developed and facilitated educational seminars on health related issues to the public and at a professional level. These include topics on early childhood health and development, post natal anxiety and depression, complex care and family abuse and violence.

She coordinates and facilitates teaching for the Masters of Psychiatric Medicine Program, HETI HE and for specialised skills training in post graduate mental health. May is happy to see other health professionals and academics.
